

澳洲雪梨華人獅子會

The Lions Club of Sydney Chinese Inc.

District 201N5 of Lions International
P.O. Box K422, Haymarket Sydney NSW 2000, Australia

MEDIA RELEASE

SCHOLARSHIP OFFER

The Sydney Chinese Lions Humanitarian Scholarship for 2007 is now open for application. The Scholarship was first established by the Lions Club of Sydney Chinese Inc (the Club) in 2003, and its purpose is to encourage and recognize humanitarian services undertaken by university students. This year, the award is $1,500 for one award winner.

The eligible applicant must be studying at one of the universities in Sydney, with good character, who has undertaken and/or is planning to undertake humanitarian services.

Selection is based on the nature and commendability of services rendered and/or to be rendered by the applicants. The Club has full discretion in selecting the award winner. No further correspondence will be entered into once the winner has been selected.

Applicants are required to submit a report including (1) Name and contact details including address, email address and phone number. (2) University attended, year of study, and degree program pursued. (3) Record of humanitarian services performed. (4) Humanitarian services planned for the next 12 months.

Submissions must reach the Lions Club of Sydney Chinese Inc, PO Box 850, Chatswood NSW 2057, by 31 March 2007.

Applicants may be invited to a brief presentation of their services at a meeting of the Club.

Results will be announced in May/June 2007.

For further information on the scholarship, or activities of the Club, please contact Rita Kwan (phone: 0409 576 848, email: akwan1@bigpond.net.au) and/or visit our website at www.sydneychineselions.org.au .

OUR CLUB

The Lions Club of Sydney Chinese Inc (the Club) is a member of Lions Clubs International, an international non profit community service organization, upholding a common motto “WE SERVE”. Today, there are Lions Clubs in around 200 countries and geographical areas all over the world. In District 201N5, which covers the Sydney area and Norfolk Island, there are some 80 Clubs with around 1,800 members. Amongst these, there are around 6 Chinese-based Clubs in New South Wales, Australia. The Club is the first of these Chinese-based Clubs chartered in April 1995.

On the Lions’ Emblem, there is a lion on each of the two sides, facing opposite directions – one looks back to past with pride, and the other looks to the future with vision and hope. This Emblem aptly describes the community work that is being done at the Club. Ever since their charter, the Club has been well supported by the community including corporate entities and small businesses, as well as private individuals. Over the past twelve years, under the leadership of President Dr. Anthony Cheung and other Past Presidents, in conjunction with the relentless effort of its members and, on top of all these, the generous donations and sponsorships received from the community, the Club has raised and donated over a hundred fifty thousand dollars to a number of charities including the Australian Red Cross, the Sir David Martin Foundation, the Fred Hollows Foundation, the Westmead and Concord Hospitals, the Children’s Mobility (Hart Walker) Foundation and the Elderly Australian Chinese Homes. Thousands had reaped the benefits. The Club is also mindful of encouraging young adults to participate humanitarian services, hence, it has since 2003 organised its humanitarian scholarships.

This year in March, the Club will hold its Charity Ball 2007 in support of the St John Ambulance (NSW) in support of its volunteer community programmes, including its highly respected first aid services.

More detailed information on the Club and its activities are available at the Club’s website: www.sydchineselions.org.au.

Dated: 1 February 2007